CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Sir Clive Woodward is the World Cup Winning Head Coach who led England's rugby players to World Cup glory in Australia in 2003 and Team GB as Director of Sport from 2006 to 2012 including London 2012. Sir Clive is currently the Founding Partner and Chairman of Captured - an online coaching software and synchronised app based on his coaching philosophy currently being adopted by The FA, The PGA and The IOC. Sir Clive is also supporting aspiring athletes and coaches through a bespoke scholarship programme in partnership with investors from the corporate world. He is a respected commentator for BBC Sport & SKY Sports' rugby coverage, and writes as a member of The Daily Mail's award winning sports team.

"An icon of Sport in Great Britain

In detail

Rugby: A former England International and British & Irish Lion himself, during Clive's tenure as Head Coach England moved from 6th in the World to being the number one ranked team, winning every trophy an England team can win, including memorably the 2003 World Cup in Sydney. Olympic Games: In his capacity as Director of Sport for Team GB Clive was part of the leadership team for Beijing 2008, Vancouver 2010 and the best ever performance from Team GB at London 2012 where the team won an unprecedented number of medals including 29 Golds.

What he offers you

Clive's achievements in elite sport have been driven by the importance he places on creating a world class environment, coupled by a compelling attention to the development of individuals within the team and a determined attitude to challenge the status quo and traditional school of thought. Clive enjoys engaging with corporate partners and his acute understanding of the synergy between business and sport has affirmed his reputation as an inspiring and thought provoking speaker.

How he presents

A meticulous planner Clive uses interactive tailored presentations that use video and PowerPoint to illustrate his own brand of unique management insights for creating high performance winning teams.
