Prominent Economist and Futurist

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Hamish McRae is one of the country's most respected financial journalists and commentators on future trends in economics, business and society. Author of the acclaimed bestseller "The World in 2020", Hamish is Associate Editor of The Independent Newspaper, Principal Commentator for the Independent Online and Columnist for the Evening Standard.

A proven visionary of the global economy

In detail

He has been a financial and business editor for major national newspapers, and has won several awards for journalism, including Business and Finance Journalist of the Year in the 2006 British Press Awards. Currently, he is working on a new book studying how the new technologies are increasing the efficiency of the world economy.

What he offers you

Insights into how the world may develop are underpinned by his latest book 'What Works: Success in Stressful Times'. He argues that the true wealth is as much measured by the ability to develop its cultural, intellectual and social resources. As a result, he demonstrates how strategies can be developed to benefit from the best practices of the world's most renowned organisations.

How he presents

In a light and relaxed way, he illuminates complex issues with great clarity.

Languages

He presents in English.
