

Joanna Lumley OBE

Actress and Former Model

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Joanna Lumley is an English actress, voice-over artist, former model and author, best known for her role as the eternally-inebriated, fashion-obsessed Patsy in the award-winning Absolutely Fabulous which brought her renewed fame, with the series going on to prove itself one of the classic British sitcoms. She is a passionate campaigner for the Gurkhas and is a supporter of many Charities and causes.

"Joanna Lumley has one of the most recognised voices in the United Kingdom"

In detail

Born in Kashmir, India, Joanna Lumley's glittering career spans stage, television and film, with her big break as a Bond girl in 1969. She has been a regular on our screens ever since and proved her acting credentials in roles such as Purdey in the New Avengers and films roles in The Pink Panther and Shirley Valentine. In 1995 she was awarded an OBE. In recent years, Joanna has worked extensively with ITV, and in 2010 she was executive producer and presenter of Joanna Lumley's Nile. Joanna travelled again for ITV in 2011, this time visiting Greece for a four part series titled Joanna Lumley's Greek Odyssey and again in 2012 in search of Noah's Ark.
