CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Jochen Zeitz is the Director of Kering, Chairman of the board's sustainable development committee and Co-Founder and Co-Chair of The B Team, a not-for-profit initiative that has been formed by a group of global business leaders to create a future where the purpose of business is to be a driving force for social, environmental and economic benefit. Prior to this, Zeitz served 18 years as Chairman and CEO at PUMA. In 2008, he founded the Zeitz Foundation for Intercultural Ecosphere Safety to support creative and innovative sustainable solutions that balance conservation, community development, culture, and commerce promoting an inclusive, holistic paradigm of conservation.

At the age of 30, Jochen Zeitz became the youngest Chairman & CEO in German history to head a company listed on the German Stock Exchange

In detail

Jochen Zeitz graduated from the European Business School of Oestrich-Winkel with a degree in International Marketing and Finance, which he earned studying in Germany, France, and the United States. After beginning his professional career with Colgate-Palmolive in New York and Hamburg, Zeitz joined Puma in 1990. In 1993 he was appointed CEO and Chairman of the Board of Management. He reached the first major milestone within his first year as CEO, when Puma delivered its first profitable performance since 1986.
