

John Thackara

Cutting Edge Design Expert and Global Authority on Innovation and Sustainability

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

John Thackara is an internationally acclaimed authority on innovation in a green economy. For Business Week he is "one of the great voices on sustainability", and the Wall Street Journal has noted his "global reputation as a cutting edge design expert". The Economic Times of India lauded his "brilliant insights into the internet and sustainability". John is the author of a widely-read blog at designobserver.com, and of twelve books including 'In The Bubble: Designing In A Complex World'. As director of Doors of Perception, John also organises festivals around the world in which communities imagine a sustainable future - and take practical steps to realise it.

"Innovation starts with a meaningful question" John Thackar

In detail

John studied philosophy and trained as a journalist, before working for 10 years as a book and magazine editor. He was the first Director of the Netherlands Design Institute in Amsterdam and was program director of Designs of the Time (the social innovation biennial in England). He is a Fellow of The Young Foundation, the UK's social enterprise incubator and sits on the advisory boards of the Pixelache Festival in Helsinki, the Pecha Kucha Foundation in Tokyo, and Design Impact in the USA. A Senior Fellow of the Royal College of Art, he is also a member of the UK Parliament's Standing Commission on Design.

What he offers you

John's talks deliver tangible benefits: actionable insights into sustainability and resilience; a shared vision of 'preferred states'; opportunities for innovation in your organisation; and the impetus to launch high impact projects. He uses inspiring stories to demonstrate how the sustainability challenge is an opportunity for immediate action. "I talk honestly about the severity of the economic and environmental challenges that confront us - but then I re-frame these challenges in such a way that people gain fresh insight into opportunities for innovation that they can exploit".
