CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Nigel Daly is the Chairman of the British Academy of Film and Television Arts, Los Angeles, based at the heart of the film industry's most prominent chapter, California. He is also Vice President of Screen International, Founder & Artistic Director of the Laboratory Arts Collective and Board Member of BritWeek. An entrepreneurial spirit combined with the love of arts management, talent development as well as a lover of science, Nigel is a profusion of creative links - a one man army of creative energy - in particular when it comes to links between Britain and the USA.

"Nigel is a one man army of creative Energy"

In detail

Starting out as an actor, then launching a theatre company in London, he moved into publishing taking a position at the film trade paper Screen International which brought him to the USA. Here he, besides his publishing activities, directed, produced and also sometimes acted in award winning films and stage productions, such as Cat Burglar, Dark Water, Sweatland and more. In addition to these activities Nigel has also painted some remarkable pictures.

What he offers you

With his entrepreneurial spirit and oodles of creativity Nigel enjoys 'flying the flag' in the USA. Always discovering new opportunities in a number of creative areas, he is a unique and extraordinary personality to explain what it takes to succeed in a most competitive industry, developing and directing new ideas to conclusion, leading teams, projects and organisations to the next level. Working in business and art simultaneously gives him a special edge to tackle challenges in the general business community.

How he presents

An excellent speaker and after dinner guest, Nigel knows how to give presentations that needed humorous touch.
