

Rachel Lomax

Former Deputy Governor of the Bank of England

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Rachel Lomax is a British economist who served as Deputy Governor of the Bank of England from 2003 until 2008 and was a top civil servant. With an extensive experience in the public and private sectors and a deep knowledge of the operations of the UK government and financial system, Rachel joined the HSBC Board of Directors in 2008. In 2015 she became the Senior Independent Director to HSBC. In addition, Rachel is the chairman of the International Regulatory Strategy Group and Director of TheCityUK, director of Bruegel, a Brussels-based European think tank and President of the Institute of Fiscal Studies amongst others.

"An incredible role model

In detail

After graduating from Cambridge with an MA, Rachel obtained an MSc in Economics from the London School of Economics.

Previous appointments of her extensive career include Deputy Governor, Monetary Stability, at the Bank of England (BoE) and a member of the BoE's Monetary Policy Committee; Permanent Secretary at the UK Government Departments for Transport and Work and Pensions and the Welsh Office; and Vice President and Chief of Staff to the President of the World Bank. Rachel is a non-Executive Director of Arcus European Infrastructure Fund GP LLP and Heathrow Airport Holdings Limited.

What she offers you

Rachel Lomax has 40 years' financial experience, much of it gained at the heart of the British economy. Rachel's insight into monetary policy provides an incisive and enlightening view of the world we live in today. Her experiences gained throughout her career including her membership of the Monetary Policy Committee, where she had specific responsibility within the Bank for Monetary Policy, including monetary assessment and money market operations offers a unique perspective on economic matters.

How she presents

Rachel Lomax's powerful presentations reflect on her inspirational business journey in the public and monetary world.

Languages

She presents in English.

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what she could bring to your event.

How to book her?

Simply phone, fax or e-mail us.

Video