

Tim Foster MBE

Olympic Coach & Olympic Gold Medal Winning Rower

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Few Olympians have made the transition from athlete to coach as smoothly as Tim Foster. After achieving his goal of winning a gold medal as part of the never to be forgotten Coxless Four at the Sydney Olympics in 2000, Tim retired from international rowing. He transferred straight into coaching with the GB team before joining the UK Sport-sponsored Elite Coach Programme in 2004. In 2007, he became the Head Coach of the Swiss National Rowing Team, who he coaches to World and European Championships, ultimately aiming for the London Olympics 2012.

"Tim Foster is one of the UK's most determined and dedicated athletes"

In detail

During his rowing career, Tim Foster won a total of 9 World Championship and 2 Olympic medals - only twice in 14 years failing to medal. He has coached World and Olympic Championships and has just successfully coached the Swiss national team to their most successful results for 16 years.

What he offers you

The quintessential Olympic champion and 5 times Olympian, Tim is a great motivator and using the lessons he learned on the way to achieving his Olympic gold medal as well as now leading the programme, he shows audiences how to achieve their own goals and sets them on the path to winning ways both on a professional and personal basis.

How he presents

Tim is a popular and amicable speaker with a relaxed yet confident presenting style. He uses a great mix of anecdotes and humorous stories to entertain, inspire, and motivate audiences around the world.
