"Igniting and inspiring innovation worldwide"

In detail

He invented the world's first personal crowdfunding website and business method, which grew to a $10 billion a year industry in less than a decade after spreading rapidly on the Internet and helping millions of people around the globe. For this incredible achievement, he received the Daily Record's Top Innovator of the Year Award, which credited him with 'revolutionising charitable giving'. Alexander's clients span five continents across numerous industries, and include some of the world's largest and most prestigious companies such as IBM, Mastercard, KPMG and Toyota, as well as universities, associations, government agencies and many more. Alexander was honoured as Entrepreneur-in-Residence at the Wharton School of Business. He also received the Baltimore Business Journal's Top 40 under 40 Executives Award and the Daily Record's Influential Marylanders Award.
