

Anatole Kaletsky

Award Winning Journalist and Financial Economist

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Anatole Kaletsky is co-founder, chairman and chief economist of Gavekal. Before founding Gavekal he worked for 30 years as an economic journalist and commentator at the Financial Times, The Economist, and the London Times. He is also chairman of the Institute for New Economic Thinking, a foundation created to reform academic economics after the 2008 global financial crisis.

"One of the UK's leading economic commentators"

In detail

Born in Moscow and educated at Cambridge, Anatole Kaletsky went on to Harvard as a Kennedy Scholar and was awarded a Masters in Economics. He was a full-time journalist at major newspapers when he expanded his activities to include economic forecasting and financial consulting. During his 30 years as a journalist, he has received many international awards and distinctions. He is also a Director of several investment companies. His book, 'Capitalism 4.0' about the reinvention of global capitalism after the 2008 crisis, was nominated for the BBC's Samuel Johnson Prize and has been translated into Chinese, Korean, German and Portuguese.
