Andrei Kozyrev

Politician and Businessman, Expert on Russian and East European Economies

Andrei Kozyrev was the foreign minister of the Russian Federation between 1990-1996, and member of the Duma (Russian Parliament) till 2000. In 1998 he accepted an appointment to the board of Directors of the US Company, ICN Pharmaceuticals and since is a member of the board of a number of Russian and international companies. He is a professor at the Moscow Institute of International Relations.

"A skilled politician and business advisor"

In detail

Andrei was educated at the Moscow State Institute of International Relations and has PHD history. He received an Honorary degree from Columbia University in 1996. In 1968 he became a member of staff of the former U.S.S.R. Ministry of Foreign Affairs where he held various posts including Head of the Department of International Organisations and rank of ambassador by 1990. His outstanding diplomatic career is enriched by vast business experience.

What he offers you

Take a privileged look into Russian policies, and hear his views on the economic implications, and potential impact on the world of business. Andrei Kozyrev is the author of numerous books and articles, television and radio commentaries and interviews, on domestic and international, political, economic and business issues.

How he presents

Eloquent and an expert on Russian and East European topics, his presentations are glorious and he is often called back to present again.

Topics

Russian and East European Economies as Part of the Global Marketing Place

East - West Relations

Russia and It's Impact on the World of Business

Globalisation

Languages

He presents in Russian and English.

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what he could bring to your event.

How to book him?

Simply phone, fax or e-mail us.

Publications

1995

Preobrazhenie, "The Transfiguration"

1985

Torgovlia oruzhiem v politike imperializma, "The Guns Trade v Politics of Imperialism"