

Benjamin Zander

Conductor, Boston Philharmonic Orchestra

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Benjamin Zander is the conductor of The Boston Philharmonic Orchestra and the Boston Philharmonic Youth Orchestra and a guest conductor around the world. With London's famed Philharmonia Orchestra he has recorded the complete cycle of Mahler symphonies.

"A radiant communicator who connects with the corporate mind"

In detail

In 2014, Mahler's 2nd Symphony was nominated for a Grammy. Mr. Zander has given both the opening and the closing Keynote address at the World Economic Forum in Davos, where on another occasion he was awarded the Crystal award for "outstanding contributions in the Arts and international relations". In 2002 he was awarded the "Caring Citizen of the Humanities" Award by the International Council for Caring Communities at the United Nations. In honour of his 70th birthday, and 45 years of teaching, he was recently awarded an Honorary Doctorate by the New England Conservatory.

What he offers you

Mr. Zander is one of the most sought after speakers in the world, giving highly effective presentations to organisations on the subject of leadership and creativity. He employs the model of music as an analogy for corporate life. Effortlessly translating his accomplishments, he relates to the business arena in a spellbinding performance.

How he presents

With flair and animation, he involves audiences in a captivating and unique experience. He is guaranteed to be a memorable ingredient of your event that will be much talked about.

Topics

Beyond Hierarchy - Bringing Vitality to Organisations
Developing a New Paradigm for Organisations of the 21st Century
Orchestrating the Executive Team - A Model for Corporate Management Improvement
Creativity, Coaching and Teamwork

Languages

He presents in English.

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what he could bring to your event.

How to book him?

Simply phone or e-mail us.

Video

Publications

2016

Pathways to Possibility: Transforming Our Relationship with Ourselves, Each Other, and the World

2000

The Art of Possibility: Transforming Professional and Personal Life (with Rosamund Stone Zander)