"I am happiest when I don't know what's coming next." - Cate Blanchett

In detail

She was the first person to win the Sydney Theatre Critic's Circle Theatre award for Best Newcomer for her role in Kafka Dances, and Best Lead Actress for her role in David Mamet's Oleanna, opposite Shine star Geoffrey Rush. By winning the Oscar for her portrayal of Katharine Hepburn, she became the first person to give an Oscar-winning portrayal of a previous Oscar winner. Cate and her husband, screenwriter Andrew Upton, were appointed co-artistic directors of the Sydney Theatre Company, serving in that capacity for several seasons. Cate appeared as the elf queen Galadriel in Peter Jackson's The Lord of the Rings trilogy. She will take the seat of jury president at the 71st edition of the Festival de Cannes.
