

Chantal Cüer

Communications Specialist, TV and Radio Presenter

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Chantal Cüer is a recognised communication specialist. Her career has many facets, including lecturing, journalism, writing and presenting radio and television programmes, and chairing international conferences. Her corporate and political work over the last few years includes regular projects in Europe and the USA for companies such as American Express, ICL, IBM, VISA, Ford, AT&T, Ingres, Carnaud Metal Works, Amdahl, Galileo and Rank Xerox. Chantal has worked extensively with the BBC on both radio and television.

"Leading expert in communication"

In detail

In the past she has presented Radio 4's French Experience and BBC2's France Means Business, Telejournal and The World This Week. She also launched and presented The Europeans - an analysis of Eastern and Western Europe.

What she offers you

As an expert communicator Chantal has facilitated many complex issues such as the Bio-ethics and the Journalistic-ethics debates for the European Union (EU). Her knowledge of Europe and her understanding of its cultural differences have led her to chair other EU conferences and Department of Trade and Industry (DTI) lectures.

How she presents

As a speaker and moderator, Chantal's charming personality, wit and wisdom captivate the audience and her interaction with them provides relaxed and constructive question and answer sessions.
