

Gary Neville

Former Man United & England Defender, Coach & Businessman

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Gary Neville's powerful work ethic, instilled at an early age, has seen Gary enjoy a hugely successful playing career with Manchester United, before coaching roles with the England national side and Valencia in Spain. After leaving the football pitch behind, Gary became a prominent broadcaster, football club owner and entrepreneur.

In detail

More than a decade since he hung up his boots, Gary's relentless approach to life and work, the reason behind the naming of his investment business, Relentless, has seen him carve out success in a number of different areas. This desire to "win again" has been the driving factor in his seamless transition to a leading broadcaster for SkySports, the creation of his own production company, University, hospitality business and one of the largest property developments in Manchester City Centre.

What he offers you

With a wealth of insights from his playing days, Gary offers a look into the psyche of a professional sportsperson, at the motivation required to achieve at the highest level, at leadership and at what it means to be a part of a successful team. He also looks at the risks and rewards of stepping outside of your comfort zone, and at the lessons he transferred from sport to business and those he has had to learn on his own.

How he presents

He is a relaxed, thoughtful and engaging speaker. He captivates his audiences with his energy and enthusiasm.
