

Rupert Pennant-Rea

Leading Economist, Journalist, Central Banker and Businessman

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Rupert Pennant-Rea has had a varied career as economist, journalist, central banker and businessman. He is currently Chairman of the Henderson Group specializing in Fund Management and he is an advisor on the Times Shadow Monetary Policy. He is currently chairman of The Stationery Office and he was previously Deputy Governor of the Bank of England.

Audiences respond enthusiastically to Rupert's illuminating presentations

In detail

Born and brought up in Zimbabwe, Rupert has degrees from Trinity College, Dublin and the University of Manchester. He started working for the bank of England before moving to "The Economist" where he spent sixteen years, seven of them as Editor, before returning to The Bank of England as Deputy Governor.

What he offers you

Rupert draws upon his considerable experience as a top economist to guide and advise decision makers from all fields on suitable business strategies and effective management policies.

How he presents

Rupert's practical and informative presentations are filled with perceptive and useful ideas delivered in an easily digested formula.

Topics

World Economy

Business and Politics

Financial Markets

Corporate Governance

Languages

Rupert presents in English.

Want to know more?

Give us a call or send us an e-mail to find out exactly what he could bring to your event.

How to book him?

Simply phone, fax or e-mail us.

Publications

1997

The Ostrich and the Emu: Policy Choices Facing the UK

1996

The Economist Economics

1986

African Burden

1984

The Pocket Economist

1980

Who runs the Economy

1979

Gold Foil