

Simon Sinek

Leadership Expert and Author

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Simon Sinek is described as "a visionary thinker with a rare intellect". The author is best known for discovering and popularising his theory of the "Golden Circle," a naturally occurring pattern grounded in the biology of human decision making and motivation. He leads the movement to inspire people to do the things that inspire them.

"An unshakeable optimist"

In detail

A trained ethnographer, Simon has a curiosity for why people and organisations do the things they do. Fascinated by the leaders and companies that make the greatest impact in the world, he has discovered some remarkable patterns of how they think, act and communicate. He writes, consults and speaks all over the world about the power of Why - the purpose that drives every one of us. Simon is a member of the RAND Corporation, one of the most highly regarded Think Tanks in the world and teaches Strategic Communication at Columbia University. He frequently writes for The New York Times, Wall Street Journal and BusinessWeek amongst others.
