Annie Lennox OBE

Iconic Singer, Songwriter, Dedicated Activist & Campaigner

CSA CELEBRITY SPEAKERS

Annie Lennox is one of the world's most renowned singer songwriters, formerly with the Eurythmics. She is celebrated as an innovator, an icon and a symbol of enduring excellence. Annie's music career is peerless with over 80 million record sales to date.

"You just decide what your values are in life and what you are going to do, and then you feel like you count, and that makes life worth living. It makes my life meaningful."

Im Einzelnen

In 2007 Annie released her album, Songs of Mass Destruction to critical acclaim. The album featured SING a song featuring 23 of the world's most successful female superstars, invited by Annie to appear on the record to help draw attention to the HIV AIDS pandemic. The SING campaign continues to raise funds and awareness. In addition to the SING campaign, Annie is an Ambassador for UNAIDS, Oxfam, Nelson Mandela's 46664 Campaign, Amnesty International, The British Red Cross, London as well as supporting numerous other organisations. In 2011 Annie received an OBE for her outstanding work and dedication as a humanitarian across the world.
